

Whenever I sing Georgia

Verse 1

Riding back in the afternoon, when we just finished school
Took them bikes down every track, until the dust fell
We were trusted to return although we were often late
I'd see you out in the distance waiting at the gate.

Chorus

I hear you call my name again
We'd race to be back home then
I never thought I'd be this far from you
Whenever I sing Georgia, you're on my mind.

Verse 2

I say you have all the answers If I was ever in doubt
You could tell if I was in the wrong If I could do without You'd be a shoulder to cry on You'd be a guiding hand
Whatever trouble I'm into you try to understand

Chorus

I hear you call my name again
We'd race to be back home then
I never thought I'd be this far from you
Whenever I sing Georgia, you're on my mind.

Verse 3

On that day I sang for you the congregation cried
And I cried hard with them could not keep it inside.

Chorus

I hear you call my name again
We'd race to be back home then
I never thought I'd be this far from you
Whenever I sing Georgia, you're on my mind.

Turning Stones

Verse 1

Meet me by the shore at 20 past sun rise.

We can sit together just watching the tide,

Revealing all its secrets and magical reflections of you.

No blemish in the sand, let's make our mark together.

write our names in a heart and swear it's forever.

Chorus

Turning stones, turning stones with you x 2

Who knows what we might find.

Verse 2

Stepping over driftwood that's drifted on the ocean,

For miles and miles and miles.

That's a lot of devotion, to find its way here.

Middle 8

This is just the perfect day

I couldn't wish for more

You and I and the ocean

We feel in love by the shore

Bound to the Ocean

I am bound to the ocean

I am bound to the sea

Oh, oh set me free

Verse 1

Keep me clean oh keep me bright

Follow the moon in the dark of the night

Keep the fishes that swim along with me

Verse 2

Oh, oh diving below

To a world that I want to show you

This is my garden my forest and my street

Verse 3

As I breath Oh my lungs

Hold in the air so I become

Another pair of eyes looking back at the sun

Middle 8

On the beaches & coves where we run

Children build castles in the sand

The tide will eventually reach you son

And our daughters dance along

If not you

Verse 1

Who do I turn to now?

When I've turned every corner now I'm lost in this labyrinth of life

Who do I turn to now?

Where do I run to now?

I've run to the end of this earth and found no answers

Where do I run to now?

Verse 2

Who do I talk to now?

I've been talking in my sleep to anyone who will listen

Who do I talk to now?

Chorus

Who, If Not you. x 2

Verse 3

Who will hold me now

Hold me tight but don't hold me back please

Who will hold me now

Who will listen now

Although I shout it seems like a whisper

Who will listen now

Verse 4

Who will love me now

If not, you then where can I rest this heart of mine

Don't follow me

Verse 1

Driving home,
traffic as slow as the dirt it's on
I cannot find a decent song on my radio
I'm looking around
There's a young man with his head in the clouds
With impractical dreams, funny how he seems,
Smarter than me.

Chorus

Take it slow, he seems to know which way to go.
Don't follow me I'll follow you
I've come too far. I still don't really know where we are
Don't follow me I'll follow you

Verse 2

"Take my hand
come with me to the promised land" he said,
I don't really understand what he's talking about.
The promised land,
was pulled like a rug from beneath the man
and sold online in a plastic can as real estate

Verse 3

An innocent child
Has no idea as she delivers her smile
That the hopes of a nation, weight of the world
Are pinning her down.

So Long, Travelling Away

Verse 1

Hauling out of everywhere with all I've got too lose
That's when I met my girl, the kind of girl you'd choose
We didn't sit and talk for hours, I guess we kind of knew
Two stones ready to wear the souls out of our shoes.

Pre

We kept rolling on, follow the rising sun,
No matter how far we roam, together's where I call home.

Chorus

So Long, travelling away

Verse 2

Guess we never planned it right just, pack a bag and we'd go
With my out stretched hand point my thumb to the sky at the first truck that came along,
He said, 'where are you going boy?' I said 'way on down the road'
We jumped in to get out of the cold didn't notice the gun in his load.

Pre

Is this a man we can trust, he's just on a journey like us?
Helping us along, hope he doesn't do no wrong.

Chorus

So Long, travelling away

Verse 3

Best we keep moving on, other roads to roam
Well should we go east, north, west or, fly south for home?

Pre

We kept rolling on, into the rising sun,
However how far we roam, together's where I call home.

Chorus

So Long, travelling away

Listen to me

Verse 1

I've had tears of sadness, been one step from madness
Borderline insomniac, though I would never crack
Work hard and play soft, have friends that I have not
And some friends I will never know

Never really been into cars, played in a lot of bars
Met all kinds of people and all kinds of could be stars heard their opinions on life and minions
Their imaginary superstars they all seem to know

Chorus

Hey, why don't you listen to me?
I've got so much more to give
If you could only hear.
What I have to say.

Verse 2

Those people are talking I can't hear my own words
Though I shout at the top of my voice
And I screaming inside would you stop and just listen
To what you are missing in life

Take off the blinkers, put down your defenses
Open the gates to your heart
You don't mind if I sing, a song for myself?
A song that I wrote for everyone else

I said hey, why don't you listen to me?
I've got so much more to give
If you could only hear.
What I have to say.

And I'm singing now, am I being heard?
And I'm singing now, can you hear my words? I'm singing now...

Sunkiss

Verse 1

Shadows cast in the morning sun,
Spreading warmth on everyone,
Oh summer keep the Autumn at bay.
First day of Spring and the rain comes down
Wash away all the Winter clouds
Oh Summer come on, Don't you mess with me.

Chorus

And I love this day now.

Verse 2

Summer night and a Summer breeze
Blows soft over Winter trees
Sunlight in your eyes is all I see.
Making foot prints in the sand
On the beach as the waves roll in Come on Miss Sunshine won't you take my hand.

Middle 8

Oh a sun kiss with you
Would last me the Winter through
Oh a sun kiss with you
Keep me warm inside, keep the cold away at night.

Verse 3

Shadow cast in the morning sun
Spreading warmth on everyone
Come on Miss sunshine take my hand.

And I love this day now.

Gwendolyn Rose

Verse 1

From the moment that I met you I knew, I'd love you for ever.

Even when you cry you make me smile.

Looking at your face is just like looking in a mirror,

A reflection I haven't seen for a while.

Seeing your reaction to this song, you beat your hand almost in time,

And it's lighting up the room.

Making a comment that I don't understand,

I'll put it down as constructive criticism.

Chorus

As Van Morrison said, have I told you lately that I love you.

As you said mum, mum, mum. she loves you too.

And we're happy to have you around, listening to every sound you make,

Gwendolyn Rose.

Verse 2

As I hold you in my arms you pull on the paper,

That I'm trying to write the lyrics on.

With one firm tug it falls to the ground

You give a whimper of quiet satisfaction

Now that your sleeping, I finish composing

This ode to my only child.

It's fun and laughter happy ever after

Teas at bedtime, you won't eat your food no more.

Chorus

Repeat 1st

My Heart is Broke

Verse 1

I won't write you a letter I've no paper to write it on.

I won't write you a letter I've no paper to write it on.

I've nothing to say anyhow, now my baby's gone.

Verse 2

I can't call you later I haven't a nickel or a dime.

I can't call you later I haven't a nickel or a dime.

I can't call you later if I could, hell, I wouldn't have the time.

Chorus

My Heart is broke and my baby's gone this time.

My Heart is broke and my baby's gone this time.

My heart is broken, she don't seem to mind.

Verse 3

She asks while she's leaving can we still be friends?

She asks while she's leaving can we still be friends?

Sure I still love you, so long as I don't see you again.

Back before the storm

Verse 1

There is salt in the palm of his leathery hands
weathered by tides and storms
The lines on his face deep creases that flow to the sea, this man was born.
Now it's said in the town that his father was drowned and his father before him too.
He said he'd be safe with God's speed and good grace
I'm sailing home to you, sailing home to you.

Chorus

In my baby's arms tonight, in my baby's arms make sure the fires are alight we'll be back before the storm, back before the storm.

Verse 2

They were not to know but on that fateful eve as they cast off and steamed to the night a storm so fierce it could draw out the tears from faces cold with fright
A hammer wind blows at it knocks through the cabin their only protection gone
in his final words he whispered a prayer
"keep those at home safe and warm"

Verse 3

Years had passed, and the sea broke the wreck
as it washed upon the shore
They found a gold chain right there on the deck which the fisherman once wore and inscribed on a pendent the words from his love.
Be back before the storm, be back before the storm

Wake up smiling

Bad luck stories I don't need to hear
Avoiding all the people that we should fear

Wake up smiling you just sleep the whole day through
And when you open up your eyes
You wake up smiling too

Verse 2

You only realize just how lucky you are
Lucky to be there with that roof on your head
Nice fresh linin on your nice warm bed

Wake up smiling you just sleep the whole day through
And when you open up your eyes
You wake up smiling too

What's the point in them asking me to choose
When the looser wins and the winners loose

And when you open up your eyes

You wake up smiling too
